Dear Valued Business Partner,

Today marks a very exciting milestone for our company. As our partner, we want you to be among the very first to know that Dellner Brakes JHS, Dellner Brakes, Dellner Industrial, Pintsch Bubenzer and Rima are now operating as one company -- Dellner Bubenzer.

We are not changing who we are or how we produce, develop, and serve you. We are simply coming together, stronger and united as one. Our fresh new look embodies this unification with a new bold color scheme that symbolizes safety, innovation, and our vision for the future.

This joining of multinational forces provides our customers an expansive global network of integrated products and services. Our alignment reinforces our worldwide scope with a local focus. By committing additional global resources to markets big and small, we are stronger.

For us, it will always be about you -- our business partner. Our most valued asset is the team, and that is because we operate local, on the ground, to be close to you. Your trust and our relationship remain the priority.

As proud stewards of our pedigree, we are incredibly inspired by the opportunity of today because of our collective vision for the future. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know. In the meantime, we hope you share our optimism and enthusiasm.

Welcome to the new Dellner Bubenzer!
